BACKGROUND

The Subcommittee on Management, Integration, and Oversight will convene on Thursday, May 11, 2006, to continue the Committee's examination of the current division of the border security and interior enforcement missions within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and its impact upon the overall homeland security mission. Specifically, the Committee will examine the progress the Department has made in improving coordination between U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).
